

2025-2026 ANA National Awards Program Guide

AMENDED FEBRUARY 6, 2026

The Power of Nurses™

2025-2026 ANA National Awards Program Guide

Amended February 6, 2026

Background

Since the early 1900s, the American Nurses Association (ANA) has presented awards to prominent registered nurses to recognize their outstanding contributions to the nursing profession and the field of health care.

ANA pays special tribute to those individuals who, through distinguished service to the nursing profession:

- work for the improvement of health standards and the availability of health care services to all people;
- foster high standards of nursing; and/or
- stimulate and promote the professional development of registered nurses.

ANA's awards are bestowed biennially in even-numbered years. The board-appointed ANA Committee on Honorary Awards - Subcommittee is responsible for reviewing nominations for all awards and for making recommendations regarding award recipients to the ANA Committee on Honorary Awards.

The ANA Committee on Honorary Awards is charged with recommending award recipients for consideration by the ANA Board of Directors. The ANA Board of Directors approves all national awards recipients, and the decision of the ANA Board of Directors is final.

Section I: Awards Categories

Awards for Distinguished Practice in Nursing recognize excellence in nursing research, nursing education, or nursing practice, and outstanding professional contributions of an ANA member in the areas of research, education, clinical care, direct patient care, or public health.

- Distinguished Direct Patient Care Award, for providing exemplary direct patient care and contributing to the advancement of nursing practice. This award is inspired by Mary Ellen Patton who exemplified the qualities of a staff nurse leader through her service as an officer at the local, district, and state levels, and served as a mentor to staff nurses across the country.
- Early Career Nurse Leader Award, for significant accomplishments and contributions by emerging members of the nursing profession.
- Foundations of Nursing Practice Award, for outstanding accomplishments in nursing research, nursing education, or nursing practice and promoting the interdependence of these three elements as vital to enhancing nursing education and evidence-based nursing practice. This award is inspired by Jessie M. Scott, who administered the nurse training acts and was instrumental in directing federal programs of support for nursing education that improved the quality of both education and practice.
- Public Health Service Award, for exceptional leadership and outstanding professional contributions to shaping the role and advancing the practice of public health nursing. This award is inspired by Pearl McIver, who dedicated her career to promoting and protecting the health of people and communities in her role as a public health nurse.

Awards for Nurse Exemplars promote and underscore ANA's continuing dedication to the principles of nursing ethics and the highest standards of nursing practice.

- ANA Hall of Fame, for extraordinary contributions to the nursing profession over a sustained period through distinguished service, steadfast leadership, exceptional mentorship, effective advocacy, and innovative efforts that have had an enduring impact on the health and/or social/political history of the United States.
- Leadership in Ethics Award, for demonstrating the highest standards of ethics and leadership in his/her daily practice, serving as an ethical role model, and promoting ethical dialogue and/or scholarship.

Awards for Nursing Champions recognize outstanding accomplishments in the area of advocacy for the profession of nursing and for ANA.

- Advocacy Award, for making significant contributions through political, professional, and/or social advocacy on behalf of individual registered nurses, the nursing profession, and/or ANA. This award is inspired by three exceptional nurses – Barbara Thoman Curtis, Hildegard Peplau, and Shirley Titus – who made a lasting and positive impact on the nursing profession by working tirelessly for the causes in which they believed.

- Champion of Nursing Award, for an individual who is not a member of the nursing profession, or an organization. The individual or organization has demonstrated a commitment to the mission of the ANA Enterprise through distinguished service and valuable assistance to the nursing profession as well as recognition of and support for registered nurses.

Awards for Nursing Pioneers recognize outstanding contributions to social justice that removed barriers and advanced a culture of equity and inclusion in the profession of nursing.

- Luther Christman Award, for substantial contributions made by an individual man in nursing to the profession of nursing in areas that include, but are not limited to, practice, research, education, public policy and/or community service.
- Mary Mahoney Award, for significant contributions, by an individual registered nurse or a group of registered nurses, to integration within the nursing profession.

Section II: Nominations Process

General Guidelines

1. Each nominee must meet all of the specific award's eligibility requirement(s) to be considered.
2. Current members of the ANA Board of Directors, Committee on Honorary Awards, Committee on Honorary Awards Subcommittee, and ANA Enterprise staff may not be nominated for any ANA National Award and shall not nominate, write letters of support, or endorse an individual for an ANA National Award.
3. Award nominations will be accepted from:
 - Constituent/State Nurses Associations (C/SNAs)
 - Organizational Affiliates (OAs)
 - Individual C/SNA-ANA members or Individual Member Division (IMD) members

NOMINATIONS SUBMITTED BY OTHER SOURCES WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED.

4. Letters of support and other forms of validation should accurately describe how each of the nominee's professional achievements or contributions meet the specific award's selection criteria. See Award Descriptions in Appendix A.
5. Nominators may be required to verify the accuracy of the information included in the nomination.

Nomination Submissions

A complete award nomination consists of the following:

- a. Submission of an online nomination form that includes responses for all required fields.
- b. A copy of nominee's most recent curriculum vitae (CV) uploaded within the online nomination form.
 - For posthumous nominees: If a CV is not available, the nominator should include as much information on the nominee's education, work experience, and professional accomplishments as is available along with a note that the CV is not available.
 - The CV requirement may be waived only for a non-nurse nominee for the Champion of Nursing Award.
- c. Supporting documentation should be uploaded within the online nomination form as follows:
 - Up to five letters of support OR
 - Up to three letters of support and up to two print validations (e.g., articles published in professional journals, books, newspaper articles on nominee) of a nominee's achievements and contributions.
 - For the Distinguished Direct Patient Care Award, supporting documentation may include a maximum of three letters of support from the nominee's patients, peers, medical staff, co-workers, or the community.
 - Supporting materials received in excess of the five-document limit will not be considered.
 - Supporting materials will be counted in the order in which they are uploaded into the online nomination form.

Nominators are encouraged to check each nomination for completeness and accuracy as incomplete nominations will not be considered. Additionally, nominations will not be accepted after the deadline. Nominators will receive confirmation of receipt of the nomination.

Collaboration amongst C/SNAs, ANA-related entities, and other interested parties in the submission of a nomination is highly encouraged.

Section III: Review of Nominations

1. The Committee on Honorary Awards - Subcommittee:
 - screens award nominations to verify eligibility;
 - evaluates each award nomination against the award's specific selection criteria; and
 - recommends award recipients for consideration by the Committee on Honorary Awards.
2. The Committee on Honorary Awards:
 - reviews the recommendations submitted by the Awards Subcommittee; and
 - recommends award recipients for consideration by the ANA Board of Directors.

THE COMMITTEE ON HONORARY AWARDS HAS THE AUTHORITY TO WITHHOLD A RECOMMENDED RECIPIENT FOR ANY AWARD CATEGORY IF THE NOMINATIONS RECEIVED DO NOT MEET THE SELECTION CRITERIA.

3. The ANA Board of Directors:

- reviews the award recipients recommended by the Committee on Honorary Awards; and
- makes decisions on the award recipients.

THE DECISION OF THE ANA BOARD OF DIRECTORS IS FINAL.

4. The ANA President communicates the decision of the ANA Board of Directors to the nominator via hard copy and electronic communication.

THE C/SNA PRESIDENT/IMD CHAIR AND CHIEF STAFF EXECUTIVE ARE COPIED ON THIS COMMUNICATION.

Section IV: Award Nomination Form

All nominations for ANA National Awards must be submitted via the online nomination form. A tutorial on the nomination process may be accessed on ANA's website. See Nomination Process on pages 5-6 of this Guide for a list of what comprises a complete award nomination.

See Appendix A for a description of ANA's National Awards along with eligibility requirement(s) selection criteria and award questions.

Section IV: Award Nomination Form

- Review the description, eligibility requirement(s), and selection criteria for each award in Appendix A.
- Ensure that the nominee meets all the award's eligibility requirement(s) and selection criteria.
- Make note of the submission deadline and plan accordingly.
- Solicit a different letter of support for each of the award's selection criteria and include the award description and criteria with the request.
- Request that each letter of support:
 - addresses a different contribution or achievement,
 - demonstrates the relationship between the nominee's contributions and achievements and the award's selection criteria, and
 - describes what sets the nominee's contributions or achievements apart from the contributions or achievements of others.
- Ensure that print validations clearly demonstrate the relationship between the nominee's contributions and achievements and the award's selection criteria.
- Compile all nomination materials prior to initiating the online nomination process.
- Check that the nomination materials are complete and accurate before submitting.

Section V: 2025-2026 Timeline

(Updated February 6, 2026)

February 6, 2026	Call for Award Nominations OPENS
February 27, 2026 (11:59pm ET)	Call for Awards Nominations CLOSES
March 3 – 13, 2026	Review of Awards Nominations by Committee on Honorary Awards – Subcommittee
March 17, 2026	Award Recommendations determined by Committee on Honorary Awards – Subcommittee
March 19, 2026	Review of Recommendations by Committee on Honorary Awards
March 27, 2026	Consideration and Approval of Recommendations by ANA Board of Directors
March 31, 2026	National Award Notifications by ANA President
April 1, 2026	Press Release Issued by American Nurses Association
June 25, 2026	ANA National and President’s Award Ceremony

Appendix A: Award Descriptions, Criteria and Questions

ADVOCACY AWARD

ANA's Advocacy Award is inspired by the following exceptional nurse leaders who made lasting and positive impact on the nursing profession by working tirelessly for the causes in which they believed. And they did so not for personal gain but rather to right a wrong; to create balance.

- Barbara Thoman Curtis, who was a catalyst for political awareness and activity within the nursing profession. Thoman Curtis developed the model of the political nurse, helped to pioneer ANA's involvement in politics and legislation, and educated nurses on the political and legislative processes and nursing's role in the formation of health care policy.
- Hildegard Peplau, who transformed the nursing profession by developing the role of the psychiatric nurse, helping to pioneer the development of the Clinical Specialist in Psychiatric Nursing, and providing the impetus for the integration of psychosocial concepts into the practice of nursing. Peplau also contributed to the development of ANA's Social Policy Statement and set the stage for the development of standards for psychiatric nursing.
- Shirley Titus, who advocated for a healthy and ethical work environment and pioneered nursing education during her tenure as the Director of Nursing Services and Director of the School of Nursing at the University of Michigan. While at the University of Michigan, Titus established one of the first systems of general duty nursing, acting on her belief that general duty nursing would improve nursing education and patient care. Titus dedicated her life to the progress of nursing in what she described as its "tortuous evolution from the status of a craft to the status of a profession."

Description:

The Advocacy Award recognizes the individual registered nurse who embraces the role of advocate as part of his/her professional identity; is collaborative, committed, compassionate, and knowledgeable; and has made significant contributions by engaging in political, professional, and/or social advocacy.

Number of Awards Bestowed:

Two individual registered nurses may receive the Advocacy Award each award cycle.

Eligibility:

1. Current C/SNA-ANA or IMD membership.

Selection Criteria:

1. Advocated on behalf of individual registered nurses, the nursing profession, and/or ANA, by:
 - a. Promoting the nursing profession and the effectiveness of nursing's role in the provision of health care services through political or legislative activities at the state and/or national levels;

- b. Improving the delivery of care and the quality of life for vulnerable populations through direct patient care, innovative nursing practices, and/or influencing patient care at the state and/or national levels; or
- c. Empowering frontline registered nurses, facilitating positive changes in the work environment, and improving the quality of patient care through the promotion of a healthy and ethical work environment at the state and/or national levels.

Advocacy Award Questions:

1. Describe how the nominee's significant contributions in political, professional, and/or social advocacy has (NOTE: A response to only one of the following three is required)
 - promoted the nursing profession and the effectiveness of nursing's role in the provision of health care services; or
 - improved the delivery of care and the quality of life for vulnerable populations through direct patient care, innovative nursing practices, and/or influencing patient care at the state and/or national levels; or
 - empowered frontline registered nurses, facilitated positive changes in the work environment, and improved the quality of patient care.

~~Click Here to submit a nomination for the Advocacy Award.~~

CHAMPION OF NURSING AWARD

Description:

Formerly known as the Honorary Recognition Award, the Champion of Nursing Award recognizes an extraordinary individual who is not a member of the nursing profession or an organization. The individual or organization has demonstrated a commitment to the mission of the American Nurses Enterprise, and to lead the profession to shape the future of nursing and health care, through distinguished service and valuable assistance to the nursing profession as well as recognition of and support for registered nurses.

Number of Awards Bestowed:

One individual who is not a member of the nursing profession or one organization may receive the Champion of Nursing Award each award cycle.

Eligibility:

1. Individual nominees cannot be members of the nursing profession.

Selection Criteria:

1. Demonstrated commitment to and genuine interest in the nursing profession.
2. Advanced the nursing profession through contributions of national or international significance.
3. Facilitated the development of policy or the advancement of nursing practice, nursing science, or nursing education.

Champion of Nursing Award Questions:

1. Describe how the nominee (individual or organization) has demonstrated a commitment to and genuine interest in the nursing profession.
2. Describe how the nominee (individual or organization) has advanced the profession of nursing through significant national or international contributions.
3. Describe how the nominee (individual or organization) has facilitated the development of policy or the advancement of nursing practice, nursing science, or nursing education.

Click Here to submit a nomination for the Champion of Nursing Award.

DISTINGUISHED DIRECT PATIENT CARE AWARD

Inspired By:

ANA's Distinguished Direct Patient Care Award is inspired by, Mary Ellen Patton, who exemplified the qualities of a staff nurse leader. Through her service as an officer at the local, district, and state levels, Patton demonstrated that it is important and possible to be involved as a staff nurse. Patton served as an inspirational role model and mentor to staff nurses across the country and inspired community involvement through her work on various projects for children with disabilities.

Description:

The Distinguished Direct Patient Care Award recognizes an individual registered nurse who provides exemplary direct patient care and contributes to the advancement of nursing practice by demonstrating a commitment to personal leadership development and serving as an inspirational role model for others.

Number of Awards Bestowed:

Four individual registered nurses may receive the Distinguished Direct Patient Care Award each award cycle.

Eligibility:

1. Current C/SNA-ANA or IMD membership.
2. Provide direct patient care.
3. Meet the definition of a staff nurse per ANA's Bylaws. A staff nurse is defined as one who is non-supervisory, non-managerial, and includes one or more of the following:
 - i. Employed by a health care institution or agency;
 - ii. Primary role is a provider of direct patient care; and
 - iii. Collective bargaining eligible under applicable labor law.

Selection Criteria:

1. Contributed significantly to the advancement of professional staff nurses.
2. Improved the quality of direct patient care.
3. Recognized by peers for demonstrating professional behavior in the provision of direct patient care.

Distinguished Direct Patient Care Award Questions:

1. Describe how the nominee's contributions and commitment to personal leadership development led to the advancement of professional staff nurses.
2. Describe how the nominee's contributions and commitment to personal leadership improved the quality of direct patient care.
3. Describe how peers have recognized the nominee for demonstrating professional behavior in the provision of direct patient care.

~~Click Here to submit a nomination for the Distinguished Direct Patient Care Award.~~

EARLY CAREER NURSE LEADER AWARD

Description:

The Early Career Nurse Leader Award, which was created in 2021, recognizes emerging members who have already made significant contributions to the nursing profession by seeking opportunities to be challenged, taking risks, inspiring, and encouraging others, and leveraging early-career setbacks as a motivator to persevere. They have attained a high level of professional accomplishments through their involvement in and/or innovative approaches to research, policy, and/or practice at the local, regional, state, and/or national level.

Number of Awards Bestowed:

Two individual registered nurses may receive the Early Career Nurse Leader Award per award cycle.

Eligibility:

1. Current C/SNA-ANA or Individual Membership Division (IMD) Member;
2. Licensed as a Registered Nurse for five years or less; and
3. Two letters of recommendation from a professional (e.g., employer, state nurses' association) or academic advisor.

Selection Criteria:

1. Active involvement at the local, regional, state, and/or national level (e.g., advocacy, fundraising, board/committee service, educational program planning, etc.)
2. Demonstrated professional accomplishments (e.g., selected for leadership roles, engaged in research, authored publications, implemented innovative practice, etc.)
3. Demonstrated contributions to nursing research, policy, and/or practice at the local regional, state, and /or national level.
4. Sustained commitment to advanced education, continuing education, and lifelong learning.

Early Career Nurse Leader Award Questions:

1. Describe the nominee's professional accomplishments in the areas of nursing research, policy, and/or practice at the local, regional, state, and/or national levels and explain the significance of these accomplishments for an early career nurse.
2. Describe how the nominee has demonstrated a commitment to lifelong learning.

Click Here to submit a nomination for the Early Career Nurse Leader Award.

FOUNDATIONS OF NURSING PRACTICE AWARD

Inspired By:

ANA's Foundations of Nursing Practice Award is inspired by Jessie M. Scott, former assistant surgeon general and director of the Division of Nursing, Health Resources Administration, Public Health Service, of the U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare. Scott administered the nurse training acts and was instrumental in directing federal programs of support for nursing education that improved the quality of both education and practice. Under Scott's directorship, research efforts were intensified to expand the scientific base of nursing practice and incorporate the results of research into practice and education.

Description:

The Foundations of Nursing Practice Award recognizes an individual registered nurse for achieving outstanding accomplishments in nursing research, nursing education or nursing practice; and for promoting the interdependence of these three elements as vital in order to effectively integrate scientific findings into enhanced nursing education and evidence-based nursing practice, and ultimately, to better quality health care and improved patient outcomes.

Number of Awards Bestowed:

Two individual registered nurses may receive the Foundations of Nursing Practice Award each award cycle.

Eligibility:

1. Current C/SNA-ANA or IMD membership.

Selection Criteria:

1. Significant contribution to expanding nursing's foundational knowledge, addressing challenges in nursing education, or influencing nursing practice.
2. Sustained commitment to encouraging collaboration among nursing researchers, nursing educators, and practitioners.
3. Significant contribution to the integration of scientific findings to innovations in nursing education or nursing practice.

Foundations of Nursing Practice Award Questions:

1. Describe how the nominee's significant contributions in nursing research, nursing education, or nursing practice have:
 - expanded nursing's foundational knowledge,
 - addressed challenges in nursing education, or
 - influenced nursing practice.
2. Describe how the nominee demonstrated a sustained commitment to encouraging collaboration among nursing researchers, nursing educators, and practitioners.

3. Describe how the nominee has contributed to scientific findings being integrated into innovative approaches to nursing education or nursing practice.

~~Click Here to submit a nomination for the Foundations of Nursing Practice Award.~~

HALL OF FAME AWARD

Description:

The Hall of Fame Award, ANA's most prestigious award, honors an individual registered nurse who has made extraordinary contributions to the nursing profession over a sustained period of time through distinguished service, steadfast leadership, exceptional mentorship, effective advocacy, and innovative efforts—contributions that have had an enduring impact on the health and/or social/political history of the United States.

Number of Inductees:

Four individual nurses may be inducted each award cycle. The Committee on Honorary Awards has the discretion to recommend more than four inductees for consideration by the ANA Board of Directors if more than four nominees are found to be highly qualified.

Eligibility:

1. Nominee's ANA-C/SNA membership spanned their entire career.
2. Self-nominations will not be accepted.
3. Nominees, whether currently living or being considered for posthumous recognition, are eligible for consideration.

Selection Criteria:

Outstanding contributions in each of the following areas:

1. Distinguished service that spans an entire career as demonstrated by a strong commitment to ANA and active involvement in local, state, national, and/or international nursing organizations and other health-related organizations through elected office, committee service, contributions to program development and cited publications.
2. Exceptional leadership in nursing practice, nursing education, nursing administration, or nursing research that positively impacted the health and/or social/political history of the United States and that have had an enduring value to nursing.
3. Sustained commitment to mentoring as demonstrated by a commitment to guiding, supporting, and promoting the development of others.
4. Long-standing engagement in advocacy on behalf of the nursing profession and registered nurses that has advanced the nursing profession domestically and/or globally.

5. Future-oriented leader that prepared for the evolution of the nursing profession and nursing practice by embracing technology, fostering innovation, developing partnerships, and encouraging collaboration across disciplines and settings.

Hall of Fame Award Questions:

1. Describe the nominee's outstanding and lifelong contributions to ANA.
2. Describe the nominee's outstanding and lifelong involvement in local, state, national, and/or international nursing organizations and other health-related organizations.
3. Describe how the nominee's outstanding contributions to leadership in nursing practice, nursing education, nursing administration, or nursing research positively impacted the health and/or social/political history of the United States and provided enduring value to nursing.
4. Describe the nominee's outstanding contributions and commitment to mentoring.
5. Describe how the nominee's outstanding contributions and long-standing engagement in advocacy on behalf of the nursing profession and registered nurses advanced the nursing profession domestically and/or globally.
6. Describe how the nominee leveraged technology, fostered innovation, established partnerships, and encouraged collaboration across disciplines and settings.

~~Click Here to submit a nomination for the Hall of Fame Award.~~

LEADERSHIP IN ETHICS AWARD

Description:

The Leadership in Ethics Award recognizes an individual registered nurse who has authentically demonstrated the highest standards of ethics and leadership in his/her daily nursing practice; served as an ethical role model; and promoted ethical dialogue and/or scholarship.

Number of Awards Bestowed:

Two individual registered nurses may receive the Leadership in Ethics Award each award cycle.

Eligibility:

1. Current C/SNA-ANA or JMD membership.

Selection Criteria:

1. Exemplified and modeled ethical behavior by fulfilling their nursing responsibilities in a manner consistent with quality in nursing practice and the ethical obligations of the profession as outlined in ANA's Code of Ethics for Nurses with Interpretive Statements.
2. Contributed significantly to a strong ethical culture via a specific accomplishment or a lifetime of achievements.

Leadership in Ethics Award Questions:

1. Describe how the nominee has exemplified ethical behavior in fulfilling his/her nursing responsibilities.
2. Describe the nominee's contributions to a strong ethical culture, either via a specific accomplishment or a lifetime of achievement.

~~Click Here to submit a nomination for the Leadership in Ethics Award.~~

LUTHER CHRISTMAN AWARD

Description:

The Luther Christman Award was established in 2006 in recognition of Dr. Christman's contributions to nursing. He became the first man in nursing to be inducted into the American Nurses Association's Hall of Fame in 2004.

Dr. Christman had a distinguished career in nursing. He was refused a commission in the military nurse corps during World War II, so he enlisted in the Merchant Marines and served as a Pharmacist's Mate. He worked in mental health in Yankton, South Dakota and then in Michigan. He became Dean of Nursing at Vanderbilt University where he first developed his integration model of nursing education and practice. He then was named Founding Dean of Nursing at Rush Medical Center and Rush University in Chicago.

Dr. Christman became one of the founders of the National Male Nurses Association, now known as the American Assembly for Men in Nursing. Dr. Christman was a Fellow in the American Academy of Nursing and was named a "Living Legend" by the Academy and in 2004 was inducted into the ANA Hall of Fame for his extraordinary contributions to nursing.

The Luther Christman Award recognizes the contributions that an individual man in nursing has made to the profession of nursing in areas that include, but are not limited to, practice, research, education, public policy and/or community service.

Number of Awards Bestowed:

Two individual male registered nurses may receive the Luther Christman Award each award cycle.

Eligibility:

1. Current C/SNA-ANA or IMD membership.

Selection Criteria:

1. Visible, commendable, and substantial contribution to nursing in areas that include, but are not limited to practice, research, education, public policy and/or community service.
2. The nominee advocates on behalf of the nursing profession at the local, regional, national, and/or international levels.

Luther Christman Award Questions:

1. Describe the nominee's contributions to nursing in one or more of the following areas: practice, research, education, public policy, or community service.
2. Describe how the nominee has advocated on behalf of the nursing profession at the local, regional, national and/or international levels.

~~Click Here to submit a nomination for the Luther Christman Award.~~

MARY MAHONEY AWARD

Description:

This award is named for Mary Eliza Mahoney, the first African American graduate nurse in the United States. It was established to honor her active participation in nursing organizations and her efforts to raise the status of African American Nurses in professional life.

Mary Eliza Mahoney graduated from the Training School for Nurses, New England Hospital for Women and Children, in 1879. During her 40 years in nursing, she provided exemplary patient care and made outstanding contributions to nursing organizations.

In 1919, she gave the address at the first conference of the National Association of Colored Graduate Nurses. That association established the Mary Mahoney Award in 1936, in recognition of her example to all nurses of all races. The Mary Mahoney Award has been conferred by the American Nurses Association since 1952, following the NACGN dissolution and merger with ANA in 1951.

The Mary Mahoney Award recognizes significant contributions, by an individual registered nurse or a group of registered nurses, to integration within the nursing profession.

Number of Awards Bestowed:

Two individual registered nurses or one group of registered nurses may receive the Mary Mahoney Award each awards cycle.

Eligibility:

1. Current C/SNA-ANA or IMD membership.

Selection Criteria:

1. Significant contributions to opening and advancing opportunities in nursing to members of minority groups.
2. Contributions are current and have demonstrated a positive impact on the integration, retention, and advancement of minorities in nursing, intergroup relations, and nursing in general.

Mary Mahoney Award Questions:

1. Describe the nominee's/nominees' significant contributions to opening and advancing opportunities in nursing to members of minority groups.
2. Describe the positive impact of the nominee's / nominees' contributions on the integration, retention, and advancement of minorities in nursing, intergroup relations, and nursing in general.

~~Click Here to submit a nomination for the Mary Mahoney Award.~~

PUBLIC HEALTH SERVICE AWARD

ANA's Public Health Service Award is inspired by Pearl McIver, who dedicated her career to promoting and protecting the health of people and communities in her role as a public health nurse. McIver held various positions during a 35-year career with the U.S. Public Health Service including, child hygiene nurse assigned to the Missouri State Board of Health and chief of the Office of Public Health Nursing. McIver received the first Public Health Nurse Award from the Public Health Nurses Section of ANA in 1956.

Description:

The Public Health Service Award recognizes the exceptional leadership and outstanding professional contributions of a public health nurse in shaping the role and advancing the practice of public health nursing.

Number of Awards Bestowed:

Two individual registered nurses may receive the Public Health Service Award each award cycle.

Eligibility:

1. Current C/SNA-ANA or IMD membership.

Selection Criteria:

1. Recognized as a national leader in the field of public health nursing.
2. Contributed significantly to the field of public health at the national level.

Public Health Service Award Questions:

1. Describe the nominee's outstanding contributions to shaping the role and advancing the practice of public health nursing.
2. Describe the nominee's contributions to advancing the field of public health at the national level.

Click Here to submit a nomination for the Public Health Service Award.