

1.2M

nurses will be needed by 2030 to address the U.S. nursing shortage (AACN)<sup>1</sup>

2/3

of nursing schools cite a shortage of faculty and/or clinical preceptors as a reason for not accepting all qualified applicants (AACN)<sup>2</sup>

1.4%

decline in enrollment into baccalaureate nursing programs designed to prepare new nurses (AACN)<sup>3</sup>

402

innovations and nurses are a part of the Nurse Innovator Index (Nurse Innovator Index)<sup>6</sup>

10

key actions identified to achieve health equity through nursing named in the future of nursing report 2020-2030 (National Academy of Medicine)<sup>7</sup>

16

nursing schools have created innovation and design education that includes emerging educational pathway for nurses (ANA)<sup>4</sup>

15

year time-gap between research and practice (ANA)<sup>5</sup>

64%

(National of nurses surveyed in 2022 shared personal experiences of racism in the workplace which led to the creation of ten strategies to be an antiracist in nursing Commission to Address Commission)<sup>8</sup>

19.4%

of minority nurses are represented in the registered nursing workforce (AACN)<sup>9</sup>